

Nantasket Beach

Department of Conservation and Recreation

Nantasket Beach Lecture Series

All Programs are free and open to the public. Reasonable accommodations available upon request. All lectures are held at the Nantasket Beach Resort located at 45 Hull Shore Drive in Hull, MA.

Thursday
June 19
7:30pm

The New England Aquarium: Animal Care and Beyond

Join Husbandry Assistant Curator, Barbara Bailey as she provides a behind the scenes glimpse of the New England Aquarium's massive Animal Care Facility in Quincy. Come out to learn more about the renovation of this terrific facility and what it takes to prepare animals for New England Aquarium exhibits.

Thursday
July 10
7:30pm

The Cape Cod Canal: Breaking through the Bared and Bended Arm

July 29, 2014 will mark the 100th anniversary of the opening of the Cape Cod Canal. Hull's own famous lifesaver Osceola James led the opening day parade of boats through the canal, as pilot of the Nantasket Steamboat Company's Rose Standish. Join us as author J. North Conway discusses the history of the canal, and his book.

Thursday
August 14
7:30pm

America's Oldest Lighthouse Site & Last Civilian Keeper

Boston Light is the oldest lighthouse site in the country. Situated on Little Brewster Island, the iconic lighthouse is a welcoming beacon into Boston Harbor and has been since 1783. Join Sally Snowman, as she discusses what it is like living on the island and what it means to be the last Coast Guard Civilian Lighthouse Keeper.

Nantasket Beach Resort is located at 45 Hull Shore Drive, Hull, MA 02045

For more information: Call Jessica Renehan at (781)740-1605 x202

coming events